9/3/09 – DOMESTIC PURSUIT – 11pm newscast (TRT 0:35)

CBS2's Paul Magers reports breaking news out of Palmdale. A kidnapping suspect is in custody, after leading police on a two-hour high-speed chase across L.A. County. The pursuit began in Palmdale around 8 o'clock tonight. At one point, the driver pulled over and let a woman and child out of the car, then drove to downtown L.A., Westwood and back to Palmdale. That's where the suspect drove straight to the Sheriff's substation in Rancho Vista and surrendered.

9/17/09 – COSTA MESA SHOOTING – 6pm newscast (TRT 0:36)

CBS2's Laura Diaz reports on the 74-year-old Costa Mesa woman who was shot while she slept this afternoon. Tonight, police say the suspect is her husband! The shooting happened on Orange Avenue, not far from the Orange County Fairgrounds. The couple has been married more than 50 years, and neighbors say they're shocked.

9/27/09 – OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING – 11pm newscast (TRT 0:52)

NewsCentral Reporter Glen Walker reports on our breaking news in Rialto, where a police officer was shot during a standoff. Rialto Police officers first responded to a call of shots fired, and when they got on the scene, a man opened fire. Officers returned fire—the officer was shot, and so was the suspect.

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "60 MINUTES"

07/12/09 - "Eyewitness" - a report on the case of Ronald Cotton, a North Carolina man who was twice falsely convicted of raping Jennifer Thompson on the strength of her eyewitness testimony. Years later he was exonerated due to DNA testing -- and forgave his accuser. Memory experts demonstrate how easy and how common it is for eyewitnesses to make inaccurate identifications. Interviewed: Jennifer Thompson; Ronald Cotton; Detective Mike Gauldin; Rich Rosen, law professor and Cotton's attorney; memory experts Gary Wells, Professor of Psychology at Iowa State University and Elizabeth Loftus, Professor of Psychology and Law at the University of California Irvine. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT)

07/26/09 - "Gun Rush" - despite the current economic downturn, fear of tighter gun-control laws under the Obama administration have fueled an increase in gun and ammunition sales. At a Virginia gun show, gun proponents and anti-gun activists discuss why the public feels the need to possess guns and what could be fueling the sales, the gun show "loophole" in Virginia and 30 other states that allows people who are not gun dealers to sell firearms without background checks, and the Virginia Tech massacre. Interviewed: Philip Van Cleve (gun proponent); Gerald Massengil, former Police Superintendent of Virginia; Lily Habtu, Virginia Tech survivor; Omar Samaha, brother of Virginia Tech victim Reema Samaha; and Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-CA). (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)

08/02/09 - "Screening The TSA" - A report on the safety measures passengers must endure at airport security checkpoints since 9/11 and whether or not they are keeping travelers protected. The Transportation Security Administration says they are, but with screeners enforcing rules viewed by most travelers as annoying and arbitrary, the TSA has launched an image makeover. Includes comments from: Bruce Schneier, a security expert who has advised the TSA and who likens the procedures to "security theater"; and Kip Hawley, outgoing head of the TSA, who believes America is under attack from terrorists. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen M. Sughrue)

08/02/09 - "Is It Murder?" - a report on prosecutors who are pursuing harsher penalties, including murder convictions and long prison terms, for drunk drivers whose actions result in fatalities. Discussed is the case of seven-year old Katie Flynn, killed by drunk driver Martin Heidgen. Those interviewed are: Kathleen Rice, district attorney of Nassau County, New York; Jennifer and Neil Flynn, Katie Flynn's parents; Chris and Denise Tangney, Katie Flynn's grandparents; Steven Lamagna, Martin Heidgen's attorney. (C: Bob Simon - P: Catherine Olian)

08/09/09 - "The Price Of Bananas" - Chiquita Brands International of Cincinnati, Ohio has admitted that it paid nearly $2 million dollars to protect its employees in Colombia - first to the Marxist guerillas known as FARC and then to the paramilitaries who rose up to fight them, the AUC. Critics say that the money Chiquita paid may have kept their employees safe, but also helped to buy the weapons and ammunition used to massacre other people, making Chiquita complicit in those deaths. Among the interviewed are: Fernando Aguirre, Chief Executive Officer and President of Chiquita Brands International and Salvatore Mancuso, former leader of the AUC. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court)

08/16/09 - "Michael Vick" - in his first interview since he admitted to participating in illegal dogfighting, recently reinstated quarterback Michael Vick discusses the crime that resulted in his suspension from the NFL and an eventual prison sentence. Signed to the Philadelphia Eagles, Vick spends much of his free time speaking on the dangers of animal cruelty. Also interviewed: Tony Dungy, former NFL coach who has been asked to mentor Vick; Wayne Pacelle, President of the Humane Society of the United States. (C: James Brown - P: Michael Radutzky, Graham Messick, Michael Karzis)

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "48 HOURS MYSTERY"

07/04/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Next Door" (2) - a follow-up to one of the two stories included in "The Girl Next Door" (OAD: 01/07/06). In that report, Detective Scott Dudek of the Alameda County (CA) Sheriff's Office was attempting to establish the identity of a teenage girl whose body was found on May 1, 2003 in a trash bag left behind a restaurant in Castro Valley, California. Forensic sculptor Gloria Nusse created a reconstruction of the girl's face, based on nothing but her skull. After the initial 2006 report on 48 HOURS MYSTERY, a viewer called to say that the victim looked like a young girl who had been seen around Castro Valley with Miguel Castaneda, who had worked at the restaurant where the body was dumped. He had disappeared, but police received a tip that the girl and the man she had been seen with might have been from the same hometown in Mexico. Dudek and his team then went to Yahualica, Mexico. There they extensively publicized their search and handed out many fliers. A woman whose daughter was missing came forward, and a DNA sample would later confirm that she was the mother of the now-identified victim: Yesenia Nungaray. Yesenia was given a funeral in her hometown. The search for Miguel Castaneda continues. (C: Harold Dow - P: Clare Friedland) (Graphic update for this second rebroadcast: Detective Dudek says Miguel Castaneda is living in Mexico. Despite multiple arrest warrants, Mexico is not cooperating with his extradition. There is still a $65,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of Yesenia's killer.)

07/11/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Stolen Dreams" - In November of 2003, Jeanne Callahan of Rockville Centre, Long Island waited for her husband, Stephen Trantel, to return home from a day of fishing. Hours later, she received a call telling her that Stephen was alive, but was under arrest -- police told Jeanne that Stephen had committed ten bank robberies. To the people who knew Stephen, he was the least likely to rob a bank - for one, he was the son of a New York City cop. And because he was a trader on Wall Street in the big money world of commodities, he wouldn't have to steal anything. But those closest to him didn't know was that he was living a secret life. Stephen had worked for a trading company, but had become self-employed and was betting his own money on the future price of oil. He was doing well, but he didn't plan ahead. He purchased Jeanne her dream home and their mortgage tripled. As their other expenses increased, Stephen struggled to keep up. He lost so much money that the commodities exchange barred him from the floor. Afraid to tell his wife, Stephen decided that in order to hold on to the lifestyle he and Jeanne had grown accustomed to, he was going to have to steal money to maintain it. After doing research on the internet, Stephen robbed his first bank in July of 2003. By the time Stephen was caught four months later, he had stolen more than $60,000. In exchange for information and an admission of guilt, Stephen Trantel was sentenced to nine years in prison. Shortly after Stephen entered prison, Jeanne divorced him. He is scheduled to be released from prison in 2012. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Patti Aronofsky)

07/14/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Vegas Heat" - a report on the December 14, 2005 discovery of the charred corpse of a young woman, found in a burned-out car on a Las Vegas, Nevada desert road. The car was registered to Kelly Ryan, a fitness champion who is married to Craig Titus, a Mr. Olympia competitor. Both were stars of the body building world and also hard partiers, known for using illegal drugs and pain killers. The unrecognizable body was initially thought to be Ryan, but authorities were stunned when they arrived at the couple's house only to be greeted by her at the door. When asked about the car, Craig and Kelly claimed that it had been taken the day before by Melissa James, their 31-year-old live-in assistant and a dancer, who was headed to New Jersey to spend Christmas with her mother. Melissa never made it to New Jersey and when pressed, Craig and Kelly accused her of theft -- that she stole the Jaguar and used Kelly's debit card to steal from them. Detectives were lucky and discovered that Kelly's debit card was last used at Wal-Mart by Kelly, who purchased seven bottles of lighter fluid. Panicked by the police visit, Craig and Kelly confided in Megan Foley, Kelly's friend, that a fight between Kelly and Melissa had spiraled out of control -- Kelly tased Melissa, injected her with narcotics and that it ended when Craig choked her. Megan's attorney contacted the police. Armed with that information, police issued a warrant for their arrest. Eventually, the FBI tracked the couple to Boston, where they were charged with murder and arson. Twenty-one days after the body was found, it was officially identified as Melissa James. But because the body was so badly burned, the coroner could not say for sure how Melissa died or if it was even murder. Craig had a different story and in an interview, told 48 HOURS that Melissa had attacked Kelly and that he interceded on his wife's behalf. Enraged, Melissa ran upstairs to her room and when Craig checked on her, she was dead. Craig also claimed that he, Melissa, and Kelly had been using drugs for days leading up to the fight and that her death was an overdose. High on drugs, they panicked and disposed of her body in the desert. As the trial was about to begin, Craig and Kelly each accepted a plea deal -- Craig for second-degree murder, kidnapping, and arson; Kelly for battery and arson. After further courtroom dramatics, Craig Titus was sentenced to 21 to 55 years and Kelly Ryan to six to 17 years in prison. Craig has filed a motion to reduce his sentence. Kelly says her marriage to Craig is over. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chuck Stevenson, Chris O'Connell) (Graphic update for this first rebroadcast: Craig Titus' request to reduce his sentence or let him stand trial was denied. Kelly Ryan has filed for a divorce.)

07/18/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betrayal" - an update of a report on the September 3, 2006 disappearance of Nina Reiser, a Russian doctor who had married Hans Reiser, an American computer whiz. The couple had two children, but their marriage began to fall apart and Nina began an affair with Sean Sturgeon, Hans' best friend. Embroiled in a nasty custody fight, Nina dropped off the children at Hans' house on Labor Day weekend and then mysteriously vanished. Her body had never been found. After investigation, Hans was arraigned on murder charges five weeks after Nina's disappearance, and one year later, went on trial for her murder. After three days of deliberation, the jury found him guilty of first degree murder and he was sentenced to 25 years to life. Update for this rebroadcast: In the summer of 2008, Hans Reiser offered to lead police to Nina's body in exchange for a reduced verdict and reduced time in prison. The police agreed; Hans led them to her remains, which he had buried just half a mile from his house. As part of the deal, Hans was required to provide a detailed confession of how he murdered Nina, and his voice is heard describing how he strangled her. One month later, the verdict against Hans was lowered to murder in the second degree, and sentenced him to 15 years to life. Graphic updates: Nina Reiser was buried in St. Petersburg, Russia. Her children will remain in Russia with Nina's mother. Hans Reiser will be eligible for parole in 2021. He will be 58 years old. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Paul LaRosa, Gayane Keshishyan, Allen Alter)

07/25/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder.

He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. Goldbaum, Taigi Smith)

08/01/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Conspiracy To Kill" - A report on the suspiciously similar circumstances surrounding the deaths, 19 years apart, of the two husbands of Sonia Rios, who herself was later murdered. Rios, a native of the Philippines, first married Earl Bourdeau, a U.S. Marine whom she met in the Philippines. They settled in Lomita, California. After a stormy 21-year marriage, Earl wanted a divorce. But before Sonia would grant him one, she demanded that he go to the Philippines by himself to sell a family taxi business. Earl went, and, in August 1987, while sleeping on the couch in the home of Sonia's relatives, he was shot in the head at point-blank range. In 1990, Sonia then married Navy Commander Larry Risken. By 2006, their marriage had deteriorated, and Larry wanted a divorce. Sonia consented, but only if Larry went alone on a long-planned trip to the Philippines to visit two of Sonia's young relatives of whom he was very fond. He made the trip, and in April 2006 Larry was killed in the parking lot of a hospital there. One year later, in April 2007, Sonia herself was shot to death in her Lomita, California home. Both Earl and Larry's families are convinced that Sonia had both of her husbands murdered for their insurance money. But the murders of both men -- and the murder of Sonia Rios -- remain unsolved. Includes interviews with Sherry Jackson, sister of Larry Risken; Dennis Bourdeau, brother of Earl Bourdeau; Larry Altman, crime reporter; Henry Hoskins, friend of Sonia Rios; Bong Oteza, private investigator; Mike Rodriguez, L.A. County Sheriff's detective; Dr. Rachel Fortun, forensic pathologist. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Joe Halderman, Sara Rodriguez) Updated text graphics for this first rebroadcast: Sonia Rios' nephew, Eric Delacruz, and his friend, Fernando Romero, were arrested in April and charged with her murder. Both pleaded not guilty. On July 24, Sonia's friend Henry Hoskins died of a gunshot wound to the head. The coroner has ruled the death a suicide. The murders of Earl Bourdeau and Larry Risken remain unsolved.

08/08/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Caught In The Crossfire" (9:00-11:00p) - an expanded and updated report (OAD: 02/24/07; first updated 06/12/07) about Charla and Darren Mack of Reno, Nevada, a married, childless couple who were swingers who liked to attend group sex parties. After their daughter Erika was born, Charla was no longer interested in swinging and their marriage began to crumble. Charla filed for divorce. Family court Judge Chuck Weller, ordered Darren to pay Charla a lump sum of $480,000 and, $10,000 a month in spousal support. On June 12, 2006, a bullet was fired through the window of Judge Weller's chambers, spraying him with shrapnel. Shortly afterwards, police found Charla's dead body at Darren's condo. Darren had fled to Mexico. On June 22, he turned himself in to the police and was brought back to the U.S. He was charged with the murder of his wife and the attempted murder of Judge Weller. More than a year later, the trial began. The defense tried a unique strategy: self-defense in the murder of Charla and insanity for the attempted murder of Judge Weller, citing that

Weller was biased towards women and was having an affair with Charla Mack. When it came time for the defense's turn, instead of taking the stand, Darren took a deal, admitting to Charla's murder, and admitting there was enough evidence to find him guilty in the attempted murder of Judge Weller. Then, three weeks later, he withdrew his guilty plea and demanded a new trial, alleging his attorneys were in it just for the money. A new trial began, and by calling his former lawyers to the stand, Darren waived his right to attorney-client privilege; the damning revelations began. Mack took the stand, insisted he acted in self-defense and was coerced and confused when he took the plea bargain. The judge ruled against Darren's motion to withdraw the plea and he was sentenced to life in prison. He still insists he acted in self-defense. This rebroadcast includes updated text graphics at its conclusion. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Marc Goldbaum, Lourdes Aguiar) (Subtitle for the second hour of this episode: "Caught in the Crossfire: The Final Chapter").

08/15/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Peace, Love And Murder" - A report on the murder of housewife Toni Heartsong, killed in her Jupiter, Florida home on September 26, 2000. That day, police received a phone call from her husband Bob Heartsong saying that he had come home from work to discover her dead body, brutally bludgeoned and stabbed. For various reasons, Bob was initially eliminated as a possible suspect, but in 2006, new DNA technology revealed the presence of his blood under Toni's thumbnail and his DNA on her hand. He was arrested, and in 2008 he was tried for her murder. The blood evidence presented by the prosecution was deemed inconclusive, and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. Among those interviewed are: Barry Soren, Toni's brother; her cousins Mel and Sandra Sorkowitz, Deb Schepp, Elissa LeJeune; Toni's sons Eli and Jake Heartsong; Florida State investigator Tim Valentine; Steve Kochakian, a former employee of Bob Heartsong; Suzye Goldstein, Bob Heartsong's new wife; Palm Beach County police John Van Houten, Bill Springer; prosecutor Barbara Burns; defense attorney Barry Maxwell; jury foreman Tony Alberto. (C: Harold Dow - P: Alec Sirken, Lourdes Aguiar)

08/22/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Sugar Land Conspiracy" (9:00-10:00p) - On December 10, 2003, the Whitaker family -- Kent, his wife Tricia, and their two sons, Bart and Kevin -- returned to their Sugar Land, Texas home from dinner at a restaurant. Upon entering the house, Kevin and his mother were fatally shot by a gunman inside the house. Kent and Bart were each shot in the shoulder. Police investigation revealed that the murders had been planned by Bart Whitaker, who had enlisted friends Steven Champagne and Chris Brashear to carry out the plot and had intended being shot himself as part of the scenario. Among those interviewed are: Kent Whitaker, who says he has forgiven his son; Marshall Slot, detective, Sugar Land Police Department; Jeff Strange and Fred Felcman, Fort Bend County prosecutors; Also includes: interviews with residents of Cerralvo, Mexico, who became acquainted with Bart Whitaker after he fled there and assumed the name 'Rudy Rios'; comments from other friends of Bart Whitaker who had previously been approached by him to help murder his family; and comments from several members of the jury who convicted Whitaker of murder and sentenced him to death. Postscripts: Chris Brashear, the trigger man, pled guilty to murder. He's eligible for parole in 30 years. Getaway driver Steven Champagne received 15 years in exchange for his testimony against Bart Whitaker. Friends involved in earlier plots against the Whitaker family were all granted immunity and are free. This rebroadcast includes updated text graphics at its conclusion. 08/22/09 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Letter" (10:00-11:00p) - On December 3, 1998, police in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin were called to the home of Mark and Julie Jensen. Mark said he had found his wife dead in her bed. Initially, police thought suicide was a strong possibility. But a letter written by Julie before her death expressed her suspicion that Mark might kill her. A series of toxicology tests revealed in Julie's stomach a small amount of ethylene glycol, the main ingredient in antifreeze. In March 2002, Mark was arrested and charged with the first degree murder of his wife. Initially, the judge would not allow Julie's letter to be introduced as evidence in the trial. The prosecutor appealed this decision, ultimately to the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Five years passed; the appeal was successful. In January 2008, Mark went on trial Julie's murder. He was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison without possibility of parole. Includes interviews with: Julie Jensen's brothers Patrick, Paul, Mike and Larry Griffin; Florence and Dan Jensen, Mark's parents; Theresa DeFazio, teacher of one of Julie's sons; Ted and Margaret Wojt, friends of Julie Jensen; Robert Jambois, former Kenosha County District Attorney, now special prosecutor; Angie Gabrielle, Assistant District Attorney; Dr. Mary Mainland, Kenosha County medical examiner; Ed Klug, business associate of Mark Jensen; Aaron Dillard, prosecution witness. secret from Congress; upcoming Senate confirmation hearings on the nomination of Judge Sonia Sotomayor to the U.S. Supreme Court / opinions regarding her nomination / various reasons for supporting or opposing her nomination.

2) Topics include: what the appointment of a special prosecutor to investigate allegations of torture means for the Obama Administration; thoughts on Alaskan Governor Sarah Palin's decision to resign; President Obama's recent trip to the African continent; belief that a health care bill will be passed, but not before the August deadline.

07/26/09 - Guests: David Axelrod, White House Senior Advisor (1); Representative Jim Cooper (D-TN) (2); Michael Eric Dyson, Sociologist, Georgetown University (3); Kathleen Parker, Syndicated Columnist, The Washington Post Writers Group (3)

1) Topics include: controversy over the arrest of Harvard University professor Dr. Henry Louis Gates, Jr. in Cambridge, MA by Sgt. James Crowley, resulting in a claim of racial profiling / upset over comments made by President Barack Obama that the police had "acted stupidly" and his subsequent apology; President Obama's plans for health care reform -- lowering costs, improving quality of care, and keeping the burden off of the middle class / President Obama's decision to consider a surtax on people who make over $500,000 / commitment to solving the health care crisis

2) Topics include: belief that health care reform is still in its earliest stages, but that a bill will pass this year / two approaches to health care reform -- amend the current legislation in Congress or consider alternative approaches that have received high scores from the Congressional Budget Office / reaction to the rumor that the Obama Administration is considering taxing the more expensive health insurance programs, also known as the "Cadillac Plans", due to the complex tax system which subsidizes the health care policies for America's highest income earners / need to slow the rate of growth of health care spending to just an inflationary adjustment

3) Topics include: controversy over the arrest of Harvard University professor Dr. Henry Louis Gates, Jr. in Cambridge, MA by Sgt. James Crowley, resulting in a claim of racial profiling / upset over comments made by President Barack Obama that the police had "acted stupidly" and his subsequent apology / President Obama's decision to take responsibility for his comments and admit fault for his choice of words / proposed meeting between Dr. Gates and Sgt. Crowley at the White House / need for an open and honest discussion regarding the issue of race and class in America / racial profiling / belief that had this situation occurred between two women, the outcome would have been different.

08/02/09 - Guests: Lawrence Summers, Director of the National Economic Council (1); Bob Woodward, The Washington Post (2); David Brooks, The New York Times (2); Kathleen Parker, Syndicated Columnist, The Washington Post Writers Group (2)

08/09/09 - Guests: Retired General James Jones, National Security Adviser (1); Senator Carl Levin (D-MI), Chairman, Armed Services Committee (2); Senator Lindsey Graham (R-SC), Member, Armed Services Committee (2)

1) Topics include: President Obama's new strategy (effective March 2009) in Afghanistan -- increased security, economic development, and better governance from the local levels / refutation of a report that American commanders were told by him that a discussion on increasing troop levels was out of the question / importance of measuring the effectiveness of the new strategy before making recommendations / criticism of prior approaches to dealing with the situation in Afghanistan / praise for the current plan implemented by the Obama administration / promise to assess the possible need for more troops / current situation in Afghanistan; former President Bill Clinton's recent trip to North Korea, where he secured the release of American journalists Euna Lee and Laura Ling, after being held there under arrest for more than four months / North Korea's perceptible desire to continue talks with the United States / America's commitment to dealing with North Korea within the context of the six party talks -- bilaterally with other allies: China, Russia, South Korea, and Japan / fact that regardless as to how North Korea may choose to interpret former President Clinton's trip, it was done solely as a private humanitarian mission; belief that Guantanamo Bay prison will be closed by the end of the year.

2) Topics include: conjecture as to how Congress would react to a request for a troop increase in Afghanistan / current political climate in Afghanistan and how it differs from Iraq / need for NATO allies to send more troops / belief that mistakes were made in Iraq and the desire to not "Rumsfeld Afghanistan", meaning don't resist the idea of a troop increase, as may be necessary / arguments for and against committing to a troop increase at this time / need to transfer responsibility to the Afghan army; support for the closure of the prison at Guantanamo Bay / belief that fear should not keep us from housing terrorists in maximum security prisons in the United States.

08/16/09 - Guests: Robert Gibbs, White House Press Secretary (1); former Congressman Lee Hamilton (D-IN), Co-Chair, Iraq Study Group (3); former Senator Chuck Hagel (R-NE) (3); Douglas Brinkley, Presidential Historian, CBS News Analyst, author, "The Wilderness Warrior: Theodore Roosevelt and the Crusade for America" (4)

Guest Correspondent: Lara Logan, Chief Foreign Affairs Correspondent, CBS News

Guest Moderator: Harry Smith, Anchor, The Early Show

1) Topics include: promise that conditions for those who have health insurance will improve under proposed health care reform / health care exchange program which will allow the uninsured to find the best possible policy / President Obama's support for the public option -- allowing for choice and competition, in order to drive down costs and improve quality / risks involved should nothing be done to reform health care / anger directed at elected officials at the health care forums around the country / atmosphere of President Obama's recent health care forums / belief that the rancor displayed at some of the forums is garnering too much attention; President Obama's commitment to improving the American economy

2) Report from Afghanistan on the current environment in that country on the eve of presidential and provincial council elections

3) Topics include: troubling conditions in Afghanistan / need for America to reexamine our objectives in Afghanistan / upcoming elections / rumors of a request for additional troops / complexities of Afghanistan and the possibility that America will continue to

4) Topics include: reasoning behind President Teddy Roosevelt's determination to create a national park system / current state of the national park system / importance of preserving the national parks as "great heirlooms to future generations".

08/23/09 - Guests: Senator Chuck Grassley (R-IA), Ranking Member, Committee on Finance (1); Senator Kent Conrad (D-ND), Committee on Finance (1); former Governor Howard Dean, M.D. (D-VT), former Chairman, Democratic National Committee (2)

1) Topics include: problems posed by keeping or dropping the public insurance option from the health care reform bill / proposed cooperative plan -- a plan that would be controlled by its membership, not like a public insurance option that would be government run / reaction to the suggestion made by former Senator Tom Daschle (D-SD) that a procedure called reconciliation -- used to circumvent the requirement of having sixty votes for passage of a bill -- be used to pass the health care reform bill / views as to how President Obama has presented health care reform / clarification by Senator Grassley regarding his recent statement denouncing any government program "that determines you're going to pull the plug on grandma" / the eight billion dollar cost associated with end of life counseling / Republican notion of splitting the bill in two and passing the less controversial aspects first, before addressing the more arguable points / need to take measures to control the rising costs associated with health care and reduce the deficit as a result.

2) Topics include: support for the public insurance option and an explanation as to how it would impact taxpayers and benefit the small-business community / criticism against Senator Grassley and other Republicans for not being forthcoming about what they would and would not support in a health care reform bill / belief that President Obama feels that a public insurance option is necessary for true reform / view that the proposed cost of sixty billion dollars a year -- less than what is spent on Iraq and Afghanistan -- is a reasonable amount / end-of-life counseling -- permitted under Medicare -- has been morphed into "pulling the plug on grandma" by the far-right, in order to frighten the public.

08/30/09 - Guests: Senator John McCain (R-AZ) (1); Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-CA) (2); Representative Barney Frank (D-MA) (2); Senator Orrin Hatch (R-UT) (3); Michael Eric Dyson, Sociologist, Georgetown University (3)

1) Topics include: recollections about the late Massachusetts Senator Ted Kennedy, who passed away on Tuesday, August 25th; support for former Vice President Dick Cheney's statement that Attorney General Eric Holder's decision to appoint a special council to look into torture allegations was "a terrible decision" / concern over how this decision to investigate will impact the CIA and America's ongoing battle against radical Islamic extremism / belief that the interrogation techniques used were in violation of the Geneva Convention / firsthand account of torture being used as a recruiting tool for al Qaeda

2) Topics include: Senator Feinstein's empathy for Attorney General Holder's decision to appoint a special council, but belief that he should have delayed his decision; belief that the nomination process for Supreme Court candidates has become more partisan;
